Description	Lanzarote. San Bartolomé. We offer for sale a completely refurbished and ready to move in townhouse in a quiet area of San Bartolomé. When renovating this little gem, the owner not only followed the advice of renowned architects, but also successfully applied her own lighting concepts for the diffusion of daylight into the interior of the house. In this way, a townhouse could be transformed into a home flooded with sunlight. Each of the three bedrooms knows how to captivate with different highlights. Two of the three bedrooms, both with generous fitted wardrobes, are located on the ground floor, where there is also a modern bathroom with shower and window. ¶The small living room receives daylight from two sides, creating a cosy atmosphere. Special emphasis was placed on the kitchen area with open patio and dining area. This area is the heart of the ground floor. It is noteworthy that there is no door protrusion between the kitchen and the patio, so that the area between inside and outside merges into one and connects the areas without thresholds. The modern kitchen is equipped with all necessary appliances. Right next to the kitchen you will find a storage room and a utility room with enough space to store all foodstuffs. On the upper floor you will find the master bedroom with an extra large built-in wardrobe (6 doors) and even a small sea view will surprise you when entering the room. The bright bathroom completes the cosy and private atmosphere of the suite. The house offers you a generous exterior, which still offers numerous design possibilities such as a partial deck for example. Here you will also find enough space for a barbecue area. The views to the sea in the distance and to the mountains are truly stunning. ¶This house has all updated electricity and water bulletins, so you will not have to worry about anything in the coming years. The property is being sold with all the furniture, much of which has been carefully selected from various decorating brands on the mainland.If you are looking for a quality and cosy home, you should arrange a viewing today, even if San Bartolomé has not been high on your list of priorities on the island so far.
